Discovery World welcomes companies of all sizes and across many industries to engage their employees in volunteer opportunities that make a real difference to the community.

SMALL GROUPS (2-10 PEOPLE)
Small corporate groups are welcome to volunteer for a single day of service on a weekday or weekend date of their choice. Groups of 2 to 10 volunteers are divided into pairs at a variety of educational stations, from robotics to aquatic animals, to teach and engage children and families throughout the museum, including:

- Aquarium Touch Tanks – Teach visitors about Lake Sturgeon, Stingrays, Horseshoe Crabs & Slipper Lobsters, while helping to enforce exhibit rules.
- Robotic Demonstrations – Cubelets® Robot Blocks make it fast and easy to engage children of all ages in learning by building robots.
- Aquatic Invasive Species Cart – Impart the importance of our Great Lakes, while teaching visitors about the invasive species threatening our native ecosystems.
- Virtual Explorer – Assist with line management and gear set-up in our virtual reality exhibit.
- Kohl’s Design It! Cart – Create hands-on design projects, using recycled materials, with visitors at the Kohl’s Design It! Cart.

These stations are available for half-day or one-day commitments, with training provided upon arrival. Study materials are provided in advance for select stations. Other opportunities, such as assisting in Discovery World’s classrooms, may be available dependent on date of service.

Background Check & Liability Waiver, provided by Discovery World, required for all volunteer opportunities.

LARGE GROUPS (10-60 PEOPLE)
Discovery World offers a variety of fun special events on select dates throughout the year that make for great corporate volunteer opportunities, for small or large groups, from Trick-or-Treating at Halloween, to running robotics demonstrations! Volunteer roles may include assisting in guest registration, foot traffic control, event set-up and teardown, or lending a helping hand during family activities. Please contact Kelly Christman, Volunteer & Training Manager, for further details on upcoming annual events:

- FALL
