2020 DW @ HOME SUMMER CAMP POLICIES

You have the right to either grant or deny permission for images of your child, captured through video, photo, and digital devices, to be used solely for the purposes of educational and promotional material, publication in print, Discovery World's website, and Discovery World's social media sites.

If you grant permission, you hereby waive your rights to inspect and approve the finished product or copy that may be used in connection with an image and of compensation or ownership thereto.

TOOLS & EQUIPMENT
Each camp is unique in that it is taught using a variety of tools and equipment. If you would like more information pertaining the camp your child is enrolled in and the tools or equipment that your child may receive, please contact the Education Program Manager, Satira Lord, at slord@discoveryworld.org.

CANCELLATIONS & RESCHEDULING
All cancellation and rescheduling requests must be made with the Reservations Department at least one (1) week in advance of the camp start date. Please note that camps are sold as a package and no prorated refund can be given for days your camper does not attend.

- Cancellations - If you wish to cancel your DW @ Home Summer Camp reservation, you must contact the Reservations Department at least one (1) week in advance of the camp start date. Cancellations made at least one (1) week prior to the camp start date will receive a refund, minus a $25 cancellation fee. Cancellations made within the one (1) week deadline will NOT receive a refund.

- Rescheduling - If you wish to reschedule your DW @ Home Summer Camp reservation for a different week or a different camp, you must notify the Reservations Department at least one (1) week in advance of the camp start date. Rescheduling requests made within the one (1) week deadline will NOT be granted. All rescheduling requests are subject to availability.

Discovery World reserves the right to cancel a camp if it does not meet the minimum attendance threshold. In the event that fewer campers register than is required for a camp to take place, Discovery World will notify parents/guardians at least one (1) week before the camp’s start date. In this case, your child can either attend an alternate camp for no additional fee (pending space availability) or receive a full refund.

Discovery World reserves the right to remove any child from camp if his/her behavior is overly disruptive, inappropriate, or creates a safety hazard. In such cases, the child will be immediately removed from camp and asked not to return; possibly for the remainder of the camp and/or the remainder of the summer. In these cases, no refunds will be given.

By registering your child for camp, you understand that refund or camp rescheduling requests must be made at least one (1) week in advance of the camp start date. Refund or rescheduling requests made within the one (1) week deadline will be granted, minus a $25 cancellation fee for refund requests. You understand that cancellations or rescheduling requests made after the one (1) week deadline will not be honored and that you will not receive a refund or be allowed to reschedule.
CAMP CODE OF CONDUCT AND BEHAVIORAL POLICY
Each camper will be expected to adhere to the following behavioral policies. Parents/Guardians must review the following guidelines with their children prior to camp.

Parent/Guardian Responsibility
Parents/Guardians assume responsibility for the supervision of Internet use. Parents/Guardians are encouraged to discuss family rules and expectations for using Internet-based tools, including Zoom, YouTube, and other websites. Parents/Guardians are encouraged to report any evidence of cyberbullying or other inappropriate use to Discovery World.

Camper Responsibility
I acknowledge that my camper is expected to follow the Discovery World Code of Conduct throughout all online interactions and refrain from use of inappropriate language, images and bullying behavior in the online classroom environment. Failure to follow these guidelines may result in the camper being blocked from participating in online classroom activities.

1. I will respect my fellow campers.
2. I will use appropriate language.
3. I will have fun in ways that are safe.
4. I will laugh with anyone, but laugh at no one.
5. I will use the supplies, equipment, and tools only in the way I am told by my camp Educator or camp guide book.
6. I will tell my camp educator when I need help or if someone is bothering me.
7. During live camp video sessions, I will focus on my Educator and participate in all camp activities.
8. During live camp video sessions, the only websites and apps on my device will be the ones needed for camp that day.

If I do not follow the rules:

- The first time, I will be given a written warning by my camp instructor.
- The second time, the Summer Camp Manager will be notified and will remove me from the online camp session. My parent/guardian will be notified by an email or a phone call.
- The third time, I will be removed from the online camp session and will not be able to attend for the remainder of the week.

If my actions are severe or if they hurt the physical or emotional safety of another camper, I will not receive a warning and I will be asked to leave.

Discovery World reserves the right to remove any child from camp if his/her behavior is overly disruptive, inappropriate, or creates a physical or emotional safety hazard. In severe cases, the child will be immediately removed from camp and asked not to return; possibly for the remainder of the camp and/or the remainder of the summer. In these cases, no refunds will be given.

By registering your child for camp, you understand and acknowledge that your child must adhere to the above listed Discovery World behavioral policies. You hereby accept that if your child uses inappropriate language against other campers or staff, that he/she/they will be removed from camp and possibly not permitted to return and that in said cases, no refunds will be granted.
By registering for any DW @ Home Summer Camps, you agree to abide by these policies listed.

By registering your child for camp, you acknowledge that you have thoroughly and fully read the 2020 DW @ Home Summer Camp Policies, which describe important information, agreements, deadlines, and requirements pertaining to all Summer Camps. You understand and agree to abide by all the policies stated, and are bound by the provisions stated therein. Any misuse of the Discovery World content or failure to comply with the Code of Conduct may result in the child being removed from the At Home Summer Camp program.

You hereby consent to your child registering and participating in a virtual experience hosted by Discovery World. You agree to allow your child to access content digitally communicated from Discovery World, including PDFs, videos, links to websites, and other learning materials. You understand that your child will have access to videos, online content, and live videos and/or chatrooms with Discovery World Educators. You understand that your child’s image may be transmitted during video portions of distance learning and online courses. You understand that all online learning sessions will be recorded by Discovery World.

All information on registration forms is for internal use only. Information provided will not be shared outside of the Discovery World staff.
